OUR BEACHES YOUR DREAMS

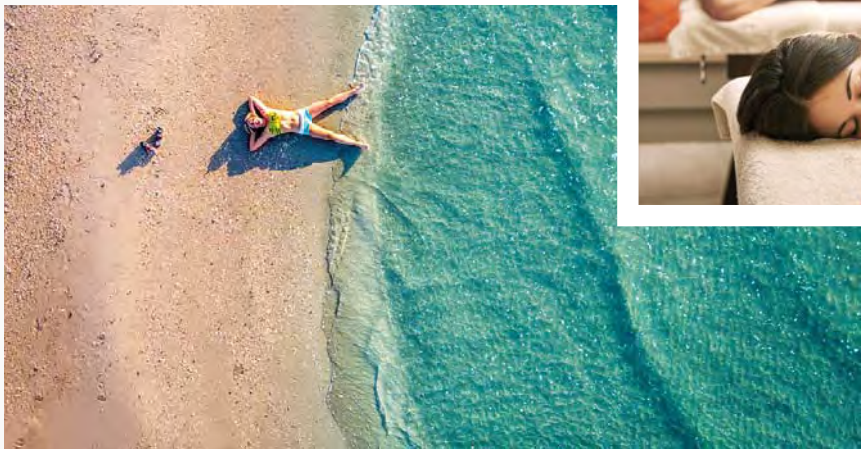

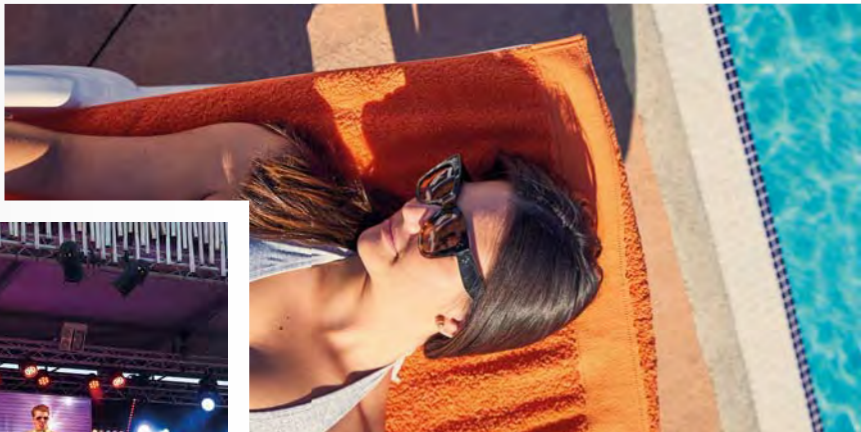

English edition

EDITORIAL

Can you feel that gentle sea breeze?
You have arrived at last. Sun, sand and sea:
everything is in place and you can now simply
enjoy your holidays at Les Méditerranées.
Before slipping into your swim-suit, you should first decide whether to head to Charlemagne, Nouvelle Floride or Beach
Garden. Now, there's no need to think about it for too long, because you'll have plenty of time to take advantage of all the facilities
on each campsite: outdoor swimming pool,
Spa centre, sports pitch and much more.
And what are the others doing while you listen to the waves lapping on the beach?
Playing beach volleyball, having a nap in the shade of a palm tree, or maybe taking a dip
in the pool? Just like you, they are enjoying the holiday of their dreams.

CHARLEMAGNE ★★★★★

Welcome to the Charlemagne: a campers' paradise, with plenty of shade, a beautiful setting... In short,
the good life. You can sunbathe peacefully on the sun-loungers beneath the palm trees by the pool,
before relaxing in the jacuzzi of the indoor swimming pool. The atmosphere is cosy and welcoming, inviting you to enjoy the simple pleasures in life.

NOUVELLE FLORIDE ★★★★★

The Nouvelle Floride is right on the waterfront, looking out over the Mediterranean Sea. However,
that's not the only great thing about this campsite;
there are activities and sports organised from dawn
to dusk, a magnificent water park, and a party every evening... So, if you've got plenty of energy to spare, the Nouvelle Floride is the place for you!

BEACH GARDEN ★★★★★

The greenery of nature or the blue of the sea? With chalets and houses directly on the beach front or next to the Bagnas Nature Reserve, the Beach Garden is perfect for those who like their home comforts. The campsite is divided into districts with charming chalets, beach houses and 5-star cabins in a relaxing setting. Wake up and go straight for a refreshing morning dip... Or why not head to the spa?

My activity-packed weekend at Les Méditerranées

Some people like to just laze around and relax during their holidays, whereas others, like Isabelle Fabre, just can't keep still. Isabelle is a well-known blogger who loves sport and travels all over the world. This summer, she dropped into Les Méditerranées for a weekend. Below, she tells us all about her sport-packed stay!

“When I'm on holiday, I like to keep active. Lying on the beach sunbathing is not really my thing. So, when I got to the Nouvelle Floride, I went straight out and rented a bike, even though my comfortable cottage with its eucalyptus wood cladding was tempting me to take a siesta. A leopard can't change its spots... So, off I went to explore the three campsites. When I got to the water park at the Beach Garden, I couldn't resist taking a dip. I mean, seriously, I don't think I've ever seen such a big pool on a campsite. There is even a lane for doing lengths! Twenty-four lengths later, I was sipping a drink on the terrace of the Nouvelle Floride, trying to decide what to do next: Yoga, Aqua Bike, Zumba or Beach Volleyball? It's hard to choose between all the different activities available on site. I decided to go for the yoga; I could go for a run on the beach and do stand-up paddle-boarding tomorrow. There's so much to do, you'll love it!”

What a great
welcome!

The view is just amazing

Erry, meeny, miny, moe,
in which pool
should I go?

At Les Méditerranées, everything is planned to make sure the whole family have a great holiday. The parents can relax, the kids can just have fun: kids' club, teen club, playgrounds, kids show... Maman Voyage tested everything for you.

Our little FAMILY BREAK at Les Méditerranées

“ At Les Méditerranées, everything is planned to make sure the whole family have a great holiday. The parents can relax, the kids can just have fun: kids' club, teen club, playgrounds, kids show... Maman Voyage tested everything for you. 'Mum, where's my towel?' When I hear that sentence, I know the holidays have started. In our family, the kids always want to go straight for a swim when they arrive. And you can't really say no when your Cabane de la Mer is right on the beach front. So, Dad keeps a watchful eye from his sun-lounger, while I resist the temptation to have a nap. At lunchtime, we all head to the campsite restaurant at the Charlemagne. You really should try rouille de seiche à la sétoise (cuttlefish in a slightly spicy tomato sauce)... just delicious! The setting is fantastic too, right next to the swimming pool. And what a pool! Water slides, paddling pools, water games, an indoor swimming pool... Guess who enjoyed a few relaxing minutes in the jacuzzi while Dad played with the kids? The next day, we reserved a little romantic day to ourselves. We headed to Marseillan for a Brasucade (barbecue-cooked mussels) and then went for a walk around the harbour, while the children had fun at the Kids' Club! ”

Starry eyed at the
disco evening show.

Can you guess what the parents are doing
during this time? Absolutely nothing!

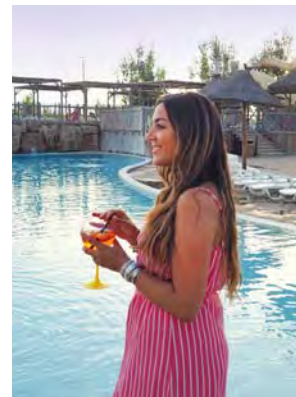

My stay at Les Meds: an unforgettable CAMPING EXPERIENCE!

Here, the camping really is five-star. At Les Méditerranées, everything is focused on relaxing in a cosy, refined atmosphere. In her lifestyle blog, Mademoiselle Voyage talks about her favourite places and offers travel tips. To take advantage of the Indian summer, she had a short stay at the Beach Garden.

The sauna
all to myself!

There is nothing I love more when I'm on holiday than taking time for myself, relaxing and being pampered. Well, at Les Méditerranées, I certainly got what I was looking for. While I'm not really used to taking holidays in the great outdoors, these three top-of-the-range campsites really amazed me. My favourite was the Beach Garden, right next to the beach. My sweetheart had chosen a cosy little nest for the two of us; one of the Cabanons du Bagnas (Bagnas cabins), which are really well designed and comfortable. These lovely wood cabins are set in the middle of beautiful Mediterranean vegetation. In the afternoon, I had booked a massage at the "Bulle des Sables" Spa. What a joy! There is a real sense of luxury and refinement; it is incredible to find such a high-quality on a campsite. After a stroll on the beach to admire the sunset, we rounded off a wonderful day by the pool under a pretty straw canopy. A big thank you to Les Méditerranées!

The Spa pool:
simply paradise!
